TLM Sanctions Policy - Centres

TLM

The Learning Machine Ltd (TLM) is an Awarding Organisation regulated by Ofqual and QiW, the regulators for qualifications in England and Wales. TLM is endorsed by eskills, the Sector Skills Council for Business and IT that ensures qualifications meet the needs of industry and employers.

All our qualifications are based on learners passing a coursework element, with grading options available through on-line examinations for performance table points. We offer on-demand examinations and moderation of coursework with constant support and feedback. Our range of qualifications are also fully progressive with routes from Entry Level through to Level 3.

Policy Statement

This policy document is for TLM Centre staff and tells you about why and how we apply Sanctions; it:

• Says what we will do when issues of non-compliance arise at one of our approved Centres
• Says how we will enforce the terms of our agreement with you
• Provides guidance about the meaning of our Sanctions, and how you can comply with them

Ofqual’s General Conditions of Recognition set out several requirements of Centres and these are mirrored in TLM’s agreement with you – this:

• Requires you to take all reasonable steps to ensure that we can comply with our Conditions of Recognition,
• Requires you to take all reasonable steps to comply with requests for information or documents made by us or Ofqual as soon as practicable,
• Requires you to assist us in carrying out any reasonable monitoring activities, and to assist Ofqual in any investigations made for the purposes of performing its functions,
• Details all the requirements with which you must comply in order to continue to properly deliver our qualifications.

This Sanctions Policy will be applied if you fail to comply with any of the above requirements.

Applying Sanctions

If you follow our policies and procedures and complete actions set by our TLM quality staff, then it is unlikely that Sanctions will be applied.

We are aware though that things can go wrong and you should contact us if they do. If you do this quickly, we can invariably fix things. In some cases, however, we may need to take action to protect our qualifications and remain compliant with our regulatory conditions; and it is here where we might apply our Sanctions. Before we do this, we will consider all the information available to us, and aim to do everything that we can to protect learners. Our Sanctions range in severity, dependent obviously on the issue:

Level 1
- Minor breach of agreement, but awards are safe
- Applied by TLM quality staff
- Report comment and agreed action plan

Level 2
- Awards possibly unsafe
- Applied by TLM quality staff
- Greater scrutiny of Centre decisions

Level 3
- Awards unsafe, malpractice, maladministration, non-payment of fees
- Usually applied by Senior TLM staff member
- Suspension of registration for some TLM qualifications

Level 4
- Communication breakdown, lack of assessment integrity for some of our qualifications
- Applied by Senior TLM staff member
- Withdrawal of recognition for some TLM qualifications

Level 5
- Communication breakdown, lack of assessment integrity for all of our qualifications
- Applied by Senior TLM staff member
- Withdrawal of TLM Centre recognition

Failure to tackle an issue that caused a lower Sanction, may well lead to us applying a higher Sanction. The process is as follows:
