

TLM

Essential Digital Skills Level 1

SAMS

Examination

Information:

The time to complete this examination is 30 minutes.
The total marks available for this assignment is 45.

Instructions:

Read each question and four possible answers carefully.
There is only one correct answer to each question.
Attempt all questions in the examination.

**This is a sample examination. Marking for this examination does not reflect the marks within the official examination which is accessed by registered learners. **

1. A malicious software which encrypts data on your computer and demands financial compensation for decrypting it is called

- a) Identify theft
- b) Ransomware
- c) Trojan
- d) Worm.

(3 marks)

2. Which one of the following email addresses would be most appropriate to use when sending a job application?

- a) Jamie9@gmail.com
- b) Jayboy99@gmail.com
- c) James.Smith@gmail.com
- d) J.S.1999@gmail.com

(3 marks)

3. Which one of the following is an example of online transactional service that focuses on media?

- a) Online clothes shopping
- b) Streaming services
- c) Electricity provider
- d) Local council online tax portal

(3 marks)

4. When installing a new application on your smart phone you may be asked to provide some permissions, e.g., to access your pictures or location data.

Why do applications ask for these permissions?

- a) To check you are not a robot
- b) To verify compatibility of your phone
- c) To work properly
- d) To prevent phishing attacks

(3 marks)

5. Which one of the following online modes of communication would be the most appropriate to let a worker know they got a promotion?

- a) Instant message
- b) Text message
- c) Social media post
- d) Email message

(3 marks)